“North Carolina barbecue”

– a phrase as deeply rooted in our hearts as in our state’s food traditions. Indeed, North Carolina’s famous barbecue is more than a meat or even a meal: it’s food that feeds the body and soul.

And here, in Cleveland County, our barbecue connoisseurs have spent lifetimes seeking out the most flavorful woods, timing the perfect slow roast, and pairing their creations with the most unique house-made sauces... All so that today, you can sample, savor, and feast your way through the best barbecue you’ve ever tasted. Pack your elastic-waist pants!

FOR HISTORY-MAKIN' EATS RED BRIDGES BARBECUE LODGE

In 1946, the Bridges family first opened the doors to Dedmond's Barbecue, the very first BBQ joint in Cleveland County. Founder Lyttle Bridges Cabaniss and her husband, Red, built their reputation on the back of "Mama B's" famous pimento cheese and iconic pit-cooked barbecue in the old style: slow cooked over hickory, all night long.

Seven decades, one move, and a name-change later, and Lyttle Bridges Cabaniss is a 2021 inductee to the Barbecue Hall of Fame and the restaurant still flourishes in the hands of the Bridges' daughter and grandchildren - a hall-of-fame, three-generation, female-owned bastion for North Carolina barbecue.

FOR MOUTHWATERING MEATS ALSTON BRIDGES BARBECUE

This Cleveland County mainstay serves incredibly tender and decadent meat – just the kind of barbecue that the phrase “melt in your mouth” was invented to describe. And, while Alston Bridges may be best known for their North Carolina barbecue and finger-licking vinegary sauce, in-the-know diners will whisper that you should also try the ribs and chicken, with a side of can't-be-missed hushpuppies and BBQ slaw.

FOR FARM-TO-TABLE BARBECUE THE HONEY HOG

So dedicated to quality that they bought their own farm to supply their two restaurants (the other is called Hoot Nannie's), The Honey Hog is farmer and pitmaster owned – and therefore, rightly obsessed with quality and flavor! Known for its elevated style – think: BBQ and brisket sandwiches, but on brioche buns – they also serve smoked chicken wings, salads, and subs.

FOR A BARBECUE ALTERNATIVE NORTH CAROLINA LIVER MUSH FESTIVAL

With early beginnings as an agrarian society, Cleveland County honors our proud and resourceful roots in many ways, including food, with the annual North Carolina Liver Mush Festival, held annually on the third Saturday of October. This slightly bizarre sounding, though nevertheless delicious comfort food, is fashioned from pork, pork liver, cornmeal, and seasonings and then enjoyed cold or fried. You'll also be able to find barbecue and many other tasty dishes at the festival.

Not in town for the festival? The Shelby Café is nationally renowned for its liver mush, which it has served every day since 1922. (Other dishes, also served!) You can also get your fill of this Cleveland County staple at The Snack Shop in Boiling Springs or Sunday Brunch at 133 West in King's Mountain.

Hannah's Coffee House has been serving coffee in Shelby North Carolina since 2013. Our coffee is roasted less than 5 miles away from the shop and served up hot for our customers enjoyment!

MUSIC, ARTS & CULTURE

CAROLINA'S LAND OF RHYTHM AND ROOTS

Cleveland County is the Land of Rhythm & Roots – the birthplace of musical legends Earl Scruggs and Don Gibson – where our music, arts, and cultural offerings are woven into the fabric of both local history and everyday life.

Today, this heritage goes modern, inspiring our local musicians, artists, and performers to follow in their forefathers' footsteps: to innovate, push boundaries, and create art both rooted in legacy and entirely their own. Explore our exhibits and galleries, performances and pottery studios, to discover the creative side of Cleveland County!

MUSIC

In honor of our rich musical heritage, Cleveland County is a must-visit stop and dedicated hub on the Blue Ridge Music Trails of North Carolina (part of the greater Blue Ridge Heritage Trail). Begin your visit at the Earl Scruggs Center and discover Cleveland County's native son and legendary musician, who innovated the "Scruggs-style" five-string, three-finger banjo playing that, together with Bill Monroe's mandolin, helped weave a foundation for what is now called bluegrass music.

Can't get enough of North Carolina's musical stylings and heritage treasures? Snag your tickets to a show at Don Gibson Theatre and, if you can time your visit right, don't miss the phenomenal Earl Scruggs Music Festival, which features 20+ artists and two days of rhythm, Americana, workshops, and great eats.

ARTS

If rhythm flows through Cleveland County's veins, then creativity fuels our souls. Begin your tour of our local arts scene with a visit to North Carolina Musicians Mural Trail, which winds through the state. Uptown Shelby is proud home to two of the nine stops, which pay painted homage to local musicians who have influenced a nation's music: Earl Scruggs (bluegrass) and Don Gibson (Nashville sound).

Then, step into arts of a different sort at the Cleveland County Arts Council and Southern Arts Society at Kings Mountain, where you can peruse the exhibits and learn about local artists. Be sure to visit our local galleries and pottery studios, and check out our Event Calendar for more on the Film Festival, Carolina Pottery Festival, Arts on the Square, and other events.

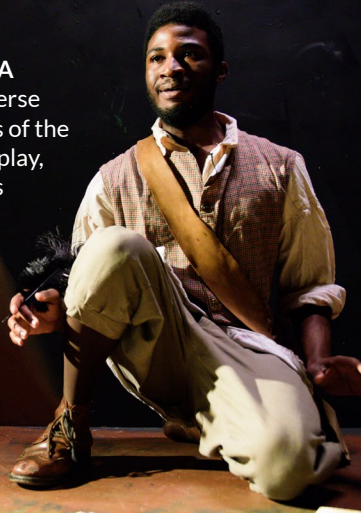

CULTURE

Immerse yourself in the life and culture of Cleveland County – in the everyday moments that make us smile and the seasonal happenings we always look forward to!

Year-round, mark your itinerary and visit our outstanding Saturday Farmers Market, a celebration of local talent and goods produced right here, in (and around) Cleveland County. Fill your basket with everything from seasonal greens and berries to mushrooms and veggies – all certified and grown within 50 miles – as well as other staples, including honey, artisan dairy, eggs, meat and fish, and flowers. Baked goods, sweets, and handmade crafts are also available. Midweek (Wednesday and Thursday) markets held seasonally.

LIBERTY MOUNTAIN THE REVOLUTIONARY DRAMA

Visit Liberty Mountain and immerse yourself in the sights and sounds of the American Revolution. This part-play, part-immersive production reels its audience in with handcrafted costumes, realistic special effects, and larger-than-life battle scenes, all while relating the story of the resourceful settlers who came to the Carolinas and played a crucial role in gaining the nation's independence.

The great Carolina outdoors flows through our souls. Explore a little and discover the outdoor opportunities of Cleveland County. They may just be the reason you extend your stay (and then, come again)!

Whether you prefer to paddle down the river or relax in your hammock, attack a challenging hike or lean into a carousel ride, there's something about Cleveland County that's sure to capture your heart and thrill your senses.

KINGS MOUNTAIN GATEWAY TRAIL

The Kings Mountain Gateway Trail is a great spot for a short or long walk, hike or ride. Trails are ten feet wide and suitable for pedestrians and bikes. Don't miss the beautiful bamboo forest (pictured). Check out Cardio Hill or visit the plateau and be rewarded with the 5,000 square foot butterfly garden to enjoy.

BROAD RIVER

Born of the Blue Ridge Mountains and mother to Atlantic tidewaters, the Broad River has long forged a path from North Carolina's foothills to the sea. Decades ago, Cleveland County banded together to preserve and protect this important ecosystem and recreational wonderland. Located in Boiling Springs, the Broad River offers miles of hiking and horseback riding trails, swimming, and picnic spots.

FIRST BROAD RIVER

A tributary that flows into the Broad River, the First Broad River is located in Shelby and is home to a new trail system, a suspension bridge, and miles of walking along the Twin Trestle Trail, the City of Shelby Greenway System, and the First Broad River Trail, where you can canoe and kayak.

SHELBY CITY PARK

The City of Shelby City Park unfolds over 150 acres of outdoor recreational paradise: ball fields and a playground, tennis courts and the nine-hole Royster Memorial Golf Course, outdoor volleyball and a sitting garden, horseshoes and a croquet court, paved walking tracks and the City Park Gym.

And then, there's the onsite Cleveland County Sports Hall of Fame, a restored Rotary Miniature Train, and the beloved, historic Herschell-Spillman Carousel. Dating from 1919, this once-traveling carousel has been completely restored by local artisans and now beckons the young and young-at-heart to delight in its painted scenery panels and 1923 Artizan/Wurlitzer Military Band organ, paired with 32 gorgeous painted steeds, two hand-carved chariots, and wheelchair spaces. Enjoy the carousel for the vintage price of just 50¢!

FOOTHILLS PUBLIC SHOOTING COMPLEX

Hone your aim and polish your skills at this outdoor shooting complex, featuring eight cold ranges, including an archery practice range and challenging 5-Stand, Skeet and Trap Fields. Everything from fixed target stands designed for precision rifles to steel targets and handgun practice, Shotgun Skeet, Trap and 5-Stand Fields, the facility delivers plenty of challenge and exciting opportunity.

FUN FOR ALL PICKLEBALL

Practice your swing at Cleveland County's newest pickleball court, a former Suttle Tennis Complex court that was repurposed in July 2021 after extensive fundraising. The new court expands the county's play space from the indoor court at Shelby City Park. Up for the challenge? Play a pickup game and, when you're ready, check out the area's clubs and leagues, including the Cleveland County Pickleball Association and Broad River Pickleball.

HISTORIC DRIVE-IN MOVIE THEATER

Get your popcorn on at our friendly neighborhood drive-ins where you can enjoy everything from movie classics to the newest releases. The Sunset Drive-In Theatre is a Cleveland County icon, owned and operated by three generations and featuring a radio signal (97.7 FM!) and snack stand (outside food permitted).

BAKER BUFFALO CREEK VINEYARD &

WINERY Named for the Buffalo Creek that winds through North Carolina's fruitful hills,
this centenarian

homestead, vineyard, and winery grows eight varietals of grapes – chardonnay, scuppernong, cabernet sauvignon, merlot, cabernet franc, Riesling, traminette, and red muscadine – and produces a variety of dry and sweet wines. Reserve a tasting to meet the makers and try them all, or visit without a reservation and drink in the lovely scenery! Leashed pets welcome.

VERONÉT VINEYARDS & WINERY

The perfect blend of New World tastes and Southern charms, Veronét is both exactly what you'd expect and everything you'd hope for your vineyard experience. Here, set amidst the pines and against a backdrop of Crowders Mountain & The Pinnacle, the winery offers your choice of tasting flights, by-the-glass sips, and full bottles, paired with charcuterie picnic boxes, nuts and crackers, and a seasonal menu. Leashed pets welcome.

PLACES TO STAY

In the cozy foothills of North Carolina, sleep in a converted red tour bus or stay in a historic bed-and-breakfast, curl up in an antique four-poster or overnight at an 1880s farmhouse. Relish the joys of Cleveland County!

Embrace architectural charm at Morgan & Wells Bed & Breakfast, a traditional 1900s Craftsman-style home with five guestrooms and a spa. Strum to the beat of your own banjo at Scott & Karen's red school bus, once a tour bus and today a unique overnight. Experience the treasures of old at the Price Family Farmstead, home to nearly 150 years of history. And at The Hunt House, 60 acres of scenic grounds welcome you to disc golf, walking trails, and rocking chairs on the front porch.

Whether you're in town for a weekend or a week, Cleveland County's diverse accommodations – from national brands to historic homes – are the kind of place that bid you cozy up by a fireside and delight in a sky full of stars, stroll rugged trails and wake to the harmonies of the foothills.

PARKS AND REC: DID YOU KNOW?

- RMGC is open 364 days of the year, closed on Christmas Day. It's like playing in the mountains without the drive!
- The Bobby Bell Pavilion was renamed in 2021 to pay homage to pro football Hall of Famer and Shelby, NC native, Bobby Bell.
- The Carrousel originated in 1919 and was restored for a reopening in 1998. The cost to ride is only fifty cents.
- Shelby Aquatic Center is a 10 lane Olympic sized pool with a high and low diving board.
