Delicious award-winning southern cuisine, authentic Mexican and Italian dishes, and fresh farm-to-table plates will have you planning all three meals in Downtown Asheboro! Your sweet tooth will be satisfied with flavored popcorn, traditional baked goods, and fresh pastries paired with teas and coffees. Relax with your friends and family at our local craft brewery, wine bar, or whiskey bar. Local tip – test your brain power at a fun trivia night!

shopping

Plan several hours to explore our unique and distinctive shops. Our shops are locally owned and filled with antiques, collectibles, memorabilia, modern artwork, and more. Sold throughout our downtown shops you'll find one-of-a-kind gift items, hand-painted furniture pieces, home and garden décor, boutique clothing and shoes, and vintage jewelry. Specialty music shops and bookstores also lend themselves to enthusiasts seeking hard to find literature or music. Visit Downtown Asheboro for an authentic downtown shopping experience that's sure to please.

entertainment

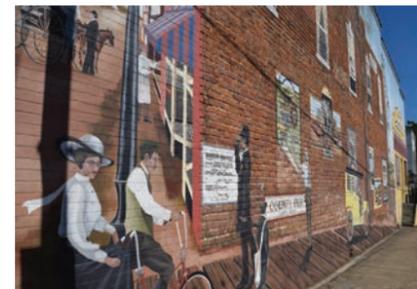

When you think of a city's downtown area, you think of the local shops and eateries, but what is also a part of Downtown Asheboro's identity is a place where residents and visitors can gather with their friends and family members to enjoy street festivals, performing arts, concerts, art displays, and more. The Historic Sunset Theatre, Bicentennial Park, and the Randolph Arts Guild are fantastic venues located in the heart of the city and extend an invitation to all. Come out and experience everything that Downtown Asheboro has to offer!

About Asheboro

The City of Asheboro, named an All-America City by the National Civic League and a Great Main Street Award Recipient, is conveniently located in Randolph County, the Heart of North Carolina. Within approximately 70 miles from the state's capital, Raleigh to the east, Charlotte to the South, and only half an hour from the Piedmont Triad region of Greensboro and High Point to the North, Asheboro is centrally located in our great state. Our variety of activities within downtown and surrounding areas has gained the Heart of North Carolina and Asheboro recognition as a top travel destination for families on a budget. Founded in 1796 as the county seat, Asheboro has a wonderful history of warm and welcoming hospitality. The city of Asheboro became known for its textile manufacturing industry, however, as the economy changed, Asheboro is now known as home to the North Carolina Zoo – the largest land mass zoo in the world! You may find yourself calling Asheboro home once you visit.

Annual Events

Through the years, several signature events have continued to define Downtown Asheboro's appreciation for community. More information about these events can

- Summer Concert Series at Bicentennial Park (May-Sept.)
- Sunset Signature Series (varies throughout the year)
- Zoo City Summerfest (1st full weekend in Aug.)
- 48th Annual Fall Festival (1st full weekend in Oct.)
- Downtown Asheboro Christmas Parade (1st Friday in Dec.)
- Christmas on Sunset (2nd Friday in Dec.)

Other Attractions

While visiting Downtown Asheboro you will find that you are centrally located to visit numerous exciting attractions in the area. A must-visit destination is the North Carolina Zoo, only a few miles from Downtown Asheboro and a treat for all ages. For baseball fans, the Asheboro Copperheads Baseball team compete in the Coastal Plain League – an all-wooden bat league – at the historic McCrary Ballpark in the summer season. History buffs will be enchanted with military artifacts and vintage airplanes at the North Carolina Aviation Museum and Hall of Fame, do not miss viewing the Piper J-3 "Flitfire" flown by Orville Wright! The largest private collection of antique Harley-Davidson® motorcycles in the country – 45 bikes from 1936 – 1978 – can be found at the American Classic Motorcycle Museum.
